

Each plot represents the expected polymorphisms with a fixed rate (beta) for the dominance coefficient. Only positive selections are plotted because there is a symmetry.

The reference line is the value for rednecks.

Rates (betas) close to 3000 are interesting.

